- Classes offered to patrons
- Printing (spine labels, patron cards)

For more information, contact Leslie Bednar at lesliebednar@lcls.org or 618.656.3216, ext. 145.

WELCOME, KEVIN!

On July 1, Kevin Becker will begin as the LCLS Technology Development Manager. You may know Kevin as the current Technology Manager at the Edwardsville Public Library. He also was intricately involved in the YouTube project "Our Library Our Choice." Please join us in welcoming Kevin as the newest member of our LCLS staff.

EMERGING LEADERS PROGRAM

The American Library Association will continue to accept applications through July 31, 2008, for the Emerging Leaders Program, which is open to librarians under the age of 35 or a new librarian of any age that has fewer than five years of post-MLS experience. Applicants also must have a recent MLS degree from an ALA or NCATE-accredited program or currently be in an MLS program. There are more rules regarding eligibility, and they all may be found on the Web site that is listed below. The Emerging Leaders Program will provide more than 100 new librarians with opportunities to work on a variety of projects, network with their peers, and get a look into the ALA's structure and activities. If you have any questions, call the American Library Association at (800) 545-2433.

VIRTUAL LIBRARY DAY ON THE HILL

The ALA Washington Office is hosting an event at ALA's 2008 Annual Conference in Anaheim that is set to steal the spotlight of election year politics: Virtual Library Day on the Hill! Virtual Library Day on the Hill will take place on Tuesday, July 1 from 8 a.m. to noon. Conference attendees will have the chance to both email and fax their Members of Congress on important library issues and learn how they can register to vote, using computer terminals located on the exhibit floor. Those not attending will also have the chance to participate. Simply go to this Web site during the hours of 8 a.m. and noon:
