SHORT FILM CONTEST--LOOKING FOR DEMOCRACY

Now is your chance to show what democracy means to you in the Looking for Democracy Short Film Contest. Any genre is fair game: documentary, narrative, experimental, music video. Filmmakers are encouraged to unleash their radical imaginations and look for democracy in creative and unusual places.

Videos cannot be more than five minutes and must be submitted by Tuesday, September 2, 2008.

For more information, please contact Maggie Berndt at The Public Square at the Illinois Humanities Council at 312.422.5585 x239 or mkb@prairie.org, or visit <http://www.prairie.org/DemocracyFilmContest>.

BELLEVILLE NATIVE AND AUTHOR COMES TO BPL

On July 12, 2008, at 2:00 pm, Belleville native and author Elizabeth (Betty Johnson) Sublette will be at the Belleville Public Library to read from and discuss her new book, The Honorable Calvin D. Johnson.

A graduate of Belleville Township High School, Sublette has published numerous articles and three books: Life's Embrace, a book of poetry; Sketches of My Brother Bernard; and her most recent from which she will read and discuss at this event, The Honorable Calvin D. Johnson, a memoir of her late father, a Republican member of the State House of Representatives from Belleville between 1935 and 1941 and the U.S. House of Representatives from 1943 to 1945.

Attendance is free, but seating is limited. Make your reservation at the Belleville Public Library Reference desk or call 618-234-0441 and ask for Kent.

BEST PRACTICES FOR THE CUSTOMER FOCUSED LIBRARY

Make plans to attend this exciting workshop hosted by the Metropolitan Library System in Burr Ridge, IL. The workshop will focus on the results of a study conducted as part of an LSTA grant to bring in a nationally recognized retail space consulting firm to help understand the changing needs of library patrons. This workshop will focus on best practices for a customer-focused library and implementing the study's recommendations.

This event will take place on July 22, 2008 at the Metropolitan Library System, Burr Ridge, from 2-4 p.m. To register for this event, please see:

A SOURCE FOR DATA AND STATISTICS ON CHILDREN

The KIDS COUNT data center, sponsored by the Annie E. Casey Foundation, www.aecf.org, contains state and city-level data for over 100 measures of child well-being. This easy-to-use, powerful online database allows you to generate custom reports for a geographic area (Profiles) or to compare areas on a topic (Ranking, Maps, and Line Graphs). Find more information at www.kidscount.org/datacenter, which also produces the annual KIDS COUNT Data Book, and The Right Start for America's Newborns.
