Using detailed explanations and multiple examples we'll discuss and practice the proper procedures for assigning commendable class numbers. Please consider these exciting and highly-informative workshops.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR SCHOOL LIBRARIANS

We are very pleased to announce the return of Summer School for School

Librarians! Be sure to check out LibraryLearning for all of the details. We are offering a special deal this summer--sign up for the entire series and you'll pay just $50! This is a tremendous value as there are 20 hours of CE/CPDU credits in this series. You'll have to register for each class separately and on the invoice that you mail in with payment, just note that you've signed up for all and are paying the discounted price. We'll take care of the rest!
