Reports

LCLS (Judy) Judy announced that the system has hired a new receptionist. Judy is looking into Web Conferencing as a way to reach more libraries that cannot attend meetings. She talked about the Snapshot program and she will be talking with directors in the next several weeks about this. There will not be a Library Day in Springfield this year, but libraries need to let their legislators know what they are doing. The survey day is Wed. Feb. 10.

YSF (Kate)

SWAYS will receive $100 so spend on the ILA forum. The fee to attend is $25 for a ½ day and $35 for a full day. The forum will be held on Wed. May 12. The morning session will be from 9:00-11:30 am and will be on Ideas for Kids. The afternoon session will be from 1:00-3:30 pm and will be on Ideas for Teens. Lunch will be on your own and we will talk more about this next month.

LAC (Magi)

No meeting

Old Business

Performers Showcase 2010 was a success. Best performance went to Stevens Puppets.

New Business

Glen Carbon library offers a program called Bring in the Arts it includes 3 kiosks that contain materials for Storytelling, Music and Dance and Arts and Crafts. Libraries may borrow these for 2-3 weeks, but you must pick them up yourself and they are heavy. Call Magi to make a reservation.

A state-wide V-tell presentation called Getting Teens to Library Programming will be held at the system on Wed. April 7 from 9:00-11:-00 am and the fee is $10 to attend.

Program Items

The next part of the agenda was a SKYP interview with author Scotti Cohn, who lives in Bloomington, IL. She wrote the books One Wolf Howls and It Happened in Chicago.

This was a demonstration on how a SKYP author visit works. If you are interested in doing one at your library you may call Magi at Glen Carbon and she will help you set it up. You need a web-cam, which cost about $20.

We had a lively Top Ten discussion and discovered may new, interesting titles.

Meeting was adjourned at 12:25 pm.

The next meeting will be at O'Fallon Public Library on Feb. 10 and we will discuss Summer Reading Ideas and the May ILA forum.
